FOREIGN NEWS BY THE STEAM-SHIP HIBERNIA. There is no late news in the European Times-the only paper come to hand-from Constantinople or St.

Petersburg, and we have no solution of the difficulty between the Porte and Autocrat. The general belief among the well informed circles is, that Russia will pocket the affront rather than provoke a collision with France and England. A correspondent writing from Belgrave, on the 1st, states that the Hungarian refugees are still at Widden, ready to set out for their destination. Prince Alexander, of Servia, behaved well towards them, allowing a free passage and provisions through his Ter-

Bem, Dembinski, and others have embraced Islam-ism and entered the Turkish army. Haynau, in his administration of military affairs, loses no opportunity to preserve the bloody epithet so universally applied to him. He has murdered under guise of Court Martial, thirteen Hungarian Generals, who delivered themselves up at the close of the war.

Count Bethyany the Prime Minister of Hungary, has been shot, also. He was to have been hung, but his wife sent him a dagger with which he might cut his throat. He did not succeed, however, in committing suicide, and he fell, pierced by Austrian bullets.

Several Hungarian officers, furnished with passports from Comorn, have passed through Berlin on their way to the West. Some are going to America. Klopka was said to be among them, and has embraced the resolution of crossing the Atlantic with one hun-

Accounts from Rome are the reverse of satisfactory. The return of the Pope is still talked about, but when is still the subject of conjecture. Garibaldi has left the Island of Santa Madalina, for Gibraltar, where he will sail for London, and ultimately for America. The trial of the June rioters is going on, and is attended with excitement at Versailles.

In Ireland several anti-rent riots took place, and were attended with fatal results. One took place on the 13th at Kitterly, King's County, when three policemen were killed, and several others seriously injured. There is no material change in Wheat, Flour or Corn. Wheat is quoted at 4s 6d to 5s 9d per 70 lbs: New Western Canal Flour 19 to 21s, Ohio 25s. There is a steady request for Indian Corn at 28s 6d to 29s 6d for white, and 27s 6d to 28s for yellow.

American cured provisions has experienced an improved state, and sales are readily effected at full prices. Prices of Lard are in favor of buyers. Scotch Pig Iron has advanced 1s per ton; Welsh is quoted at £5 10s per ton.

Later. The steamship Washington has arrived at New York from Southampton and Bremen, and brings news one day later than the dates received by the Hibernia. She has a heavy and valuable cargo of German and French goods, and 150 passengers, among whom are Mr. Rush and Bishop Southgate.

At Havre the Cotton market was very active and an advance had taken place. It is said the differences between the President of France and a majority of the Assembly have been Fresh executions have taken place in Hungary. Some of the first noblemen of the kingdom have been condemned to death.

The Turks were preparing for hostilities. The French and English fleets were on their way to the Dardanelles.

OREGON.-It is now stated, on authority of a letter from Washington that Major Gaines has accepted the nomination of Governor of Oregon, and will embark for his destination about the middle of November.

Thus has the gallant Gen. Lane, after being pursued with a perseverence bordering on vindictiveness, been at last supplanted by Gen. Taylor. The reason why the formal act of decapitulation has been so long delayed, is to be found in the fact that no "friend" of the President could be found to take the place which it has from the first been decreed should not be held by the accomplished civilian and soldier on whom the late President appropriately, and if not with the general acclaim, at least without objection from any quarter, bestowed it. It is not the least remarkable feature of this case of "proscription for opinion's sake," that Gen. Taylor, after tendering the office severally to three friends, who would not take it, was finally compelled to dig up one who had just been buried under a decisive majority in a contest for a seat in congress, and thrust him over the people of Oregon, who could have no voice in the matter. We suspect that, as between Major Gaines and General Lane, the people of the territory, had they been consulted, would have reversed Gen. Taylor's selection, by a repetition with variations of the vote that excluded the Major from congress in his own district. It cannot be a great while before the people of Oregon will have a word to say about their own affairs, and will bear these things in mind at the proper time. Meanwhile, the people in the states, who look on with surprise and disgust at this and similar exhibitions of intolerance, where they had been taught to look for a reproduction of the course of the first Washington, are evidently taking the administration in hand, as they have opportunity; and, we predict, have not yet done with it. There are states yet to speak in their sovereign voice-and that they will enforce the lessons impressed on Taylorism by Tennessee, Georgia, Poun-sylvania, &c., &c., there can be no doubt. New York's turn to speak out comes soon; and who doubts that her response will be in harmony with the tone of her democratic sister of the confederacy !- Albany

SANTE FE NEWS, &C .- ST. Louis, November 5th .-The Sante Fe Republican gives account of a skirmish between the whites and Apaches near Los Velles. The Indians had taken a lot of clothing, two horses, and 150 head of cattle from Los Velles.

Captain Papan, with forty men, pursued fifteen miles and then divided, Sergeant Miller taking part of the men. When six miles distant he came up with the encampment of Indians, and fired on and routed them, killing five, who were left on the ground, among whom was Patrils, a noted Chief. Col. Washington, with a large force, was hunting the Apaches, but with little success. Depredations were of daily occurrence all around Santa Fe. A despatch from Quincy says the slaves who stampeded in Lewis county were overhauled, and after a desperate resistance and loss of leader, were cap-peared at St. Genevieve and is quite prevalent and Barnum, who was shot by the Frenchman, is dead. A dispatch from Quincy, Illinois, yesterday, says fifty negroes of all ages and sexes, with teams, stampeded on the Missouri the night before. Their destination is not known.

WONDERFUL ESCAPE .- We learn from the Madison (Ind.) Courier of the 25th inst, that last week near Rising Sun, a Mr. McLean, of Marietta, Ohio while being put ashore from the steamboat Pike No. 9, narrowly escaped drowning. The account says: Mr. McLean was put into the yawl to be landed, and before the yawl left the boat the engines were reversed and the boat was run over. Mr. McLean was thrown into the river and passed immediately under the wheel, which was still in motion, and, incredible as it may appear, was twice carried around the whole circumference of the wheel before it was stopped. When the wheel did stop he let go his hold and swam nearly to shore, when he passed under a flat boat and came out astern. When he was finally aided in reaching the shore, more dead than alive. The gentleman was able to be up next day, but is badly bruised, having been hurt while in the steamboat wheel.

"M .THER BAILEY."-The editor of the Hartford Times has recently visited Groton, where he was introduced to Mother Bailey, the heroine of Stonington fight. She is still hearty and affable, though in her 92d year. She lived with the husband of her youth 70 years, (she says,) "without a word spoken in anger." The old lady is an out-and-out democrat and always has been.

Confusion of Tongues .- Several Whig journals, ambitious to be thought in the confidence of the Administration, occasionally present very contradictory views of its policy. A Taylor paper in New York denies that Mr. Squier, in giving a pledge of assistance to the Nicaraguans, spoke by authority, but founded his declarations "on language used by Mr. Clayton in a casual, unofficial interview." The National Intelligencer says this remark is founded in

"We can undertake to state that the Secretary expressed no views to Mr. Squier in regard to the objects of his mission, or any other variant from those contained in his official instructions."

The Republic, some time since, held language confirming the impression that these instructions sustain-interpretation, bath a revelation," but none holds forth to the edification of "those that are without."-Nat. Era.

SLAVES IN CALIFORNIA .- Notwithstanding the practical difficulty which is said to exist in California against the introduction of slavery into that territory, it appears to have an existence. The Alabama Journal says those who went from that part of the Union and who carried negroes have had no difficulty in keeping them, and it is found that they adhere to their masters there with greater zeal and devotion than elsewhere. Several have written back, expressing their regret that they did not carry with them hands from their plantations.

"A gentleman from Macon county, who took out olition movements." The Journal further states that it is in contemplation by Southern emigrants to go out in companies of fifty to a hundred, so as to be able to protect their "property," if it should be endangered.

OTA foreign letter to the National Era, speaking of the noble conduct of the Turkish Government, in reference to the Hungarian refugees, says .-The scenes at some of the meetings of the Divan must have been highly dramatic; indeed, the whole affair is a stunning satire on our sham Christianity. The Sheik-ul-Islam, who is their Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Ulemas or Canons, &c., of the Moslem hierarchy, opposed most energetically the surrender of the refugees, as such a deed was diametrically contrary to the first principles of the Mahometan religion, which expressly commands all the Faithful to protect the unfortunate. In the teeth of this noble decision of the Mahometan doctors, we are overwhelmed with additional complaints about our barbarous treatment of the Roman refugees on board the Lycurgus, driven into Malta by distress in July last Verily, it makes one blush to think that the British Premier has expressly sanctioned barbarities perpetrated on that occasion towards the wounded, the sick. the naked and the hungry, that a Christian could not practice to a dog. We shall soon have to go to Turks and Tartars to learn how to practice the first principles of humanity, not to say Christianity.

The Cincinnati Gazette is getting quite savage about the "free soil and locofoco coalitions." Wit-

POLITICAL DEPRAVITY .- C. F. Adams, the late Free Soil candidate for the Vice Ptesidency, upon the "Buffalo Platform" has made a speech at Dedham, (Mass.) advising the union of Free Soilism with Locofoco Hunkerism, to secure the spoils.

The free soilers would be very honest men in the Gazette's estimation, if they would only aid the Taylorites "to secure the spoils!"

Specimens of the Wit of the "decency organ," the Louisville Journal:

The Locofocos and Free-Soilers of Massachucetts are thoroughly wedded. We always thought that the Locofoco party would marry a nigger.

The editor of the Southern Democrat, speaking of a late Locofoco jollification, says that music "shed its inspiring fragrance around." The music, it seems had a smell to it. He must have belched it

We see our fellow townsman Col. E. Dumont is announced as a candidate for State Agent. The Col. is a man, every inch of him, and all who are acquainted with him know him to be as well qualified for that station as any other man. As a lawyer he stands No. 1, of undoubted integrity, and talent of no ordinary mould. Besides he shared the toils and dangers of the "tented field" in the late war with Mexico. A more worthy or better qualified man don't reside in Indiana .- Lwrenceburgh Journal.

STATE PRINTER .- In Indiana there is something of a contest going on for offices to be elected by the legislature. It is thought however that the office of State Printer will be given to Mr. Chapman of the State Sentinel, and that the office of Auditor, will be given to Dr. Ellis of the Goshen Democrat. Both are deserving much at the hands of the democracy of that state .- Michigan State Journal.

Four ships recently sailed from Boston, on the same day for California. They carried a total of four hundred passengers, among whom were only three momen, and one of these already married! Well! if we are to choose between gold and women, we shall stay where we are. Others may do as they please.

Pork .- November is here, and no pork buyers have appeared in this section yet. In fact we have heard of no purchasers any where this season. Things look very gloomy for the pork raisers at present. There is a large quantity of fine hogs in this county .- Pa-

DEFALCATION .- A leak has been discovered in the Worcester Railroad income, which appears to have escaped the vigilance of investigating committees, and by which some $30,000 at least, are said to have been surreptitiously taken from the corporation within a few years. The Treasurer's office has been opened by false keys, and tickets abstracted which were sold in packages to agents who forwarded immigrants and other passengers to the western country. The late deput master, A. W. Dana, is deeply concerned in the transaction, and it is understood that he implicates others. The corporation have attached his property .- Boston Courier.

ARREST .- Fitz Henry Warren, second Assistant Post master General, was arrested at the depot, in Springfield, on Tuesday forenoon, just before the departure of the Southern train, by officer Gorham, at the instance of a creditor in Worcester, whose claim amounts to about $1100. Mr. Warren gave bail for his appearance on the 20th of next month .- Boston Post, Nov. 1.

tions,-that happy form of government, based upon true principles of popular government; -and present manifestawhole earth shall joyfully proclaim its freedom, and be able to unive, as one great whole, in ascribing the glory and praise to Him, the great ruler of nations-the " beneficent author of all the good that was, that is, that will be." Cause for thankfulness exists in that the earth has not withheld her fruits. The labors of the husbandman have been abundantly rewarded; and our own country, in this respect, has been signally favored. And in all cases can we find cause to approach Almighty God in a humble and contrite spirit; thanking Him for His manifold mercies; and imploring the continuance of them. If entered into in a proper spirit, such as the occasion should call forth, while our passions are subdued, our remembrance of God's goodness refreshed, we may hope confidently that the offering of grateful hearts will be acceptable in His sight.

THE GLOBE: A Congressional, Agricultural and Literary Newspaper.

The approach of Congress calls out the Annual Prospectus of the Globe Establishment. The time is full of interest. The coming in of a new Administration—the consequent broaching of a new policy touching the internal concerns of the country-the new and most important issues arising from the late vast accession to the public domain, and the great national objects associated with it-the impending difficulty in our relations with France, and the possible complication of our affairs with the troubles of Europe,—conspire to create great expectation as to the proceedings of the next Congress. The approaching Session will probably continue till late in the summer of 1850. The debates from the agitation of so many questions of vital interest to the Republic, will draw forth all the tal-ent of the National Legislature. To bring its deliberations home to the people, on each succeeding day, while measures are maturing, is, in effect, to bring the whole nation into council. The di-cussion, spreading from the Capitol to the remotest parts of the Union, forms a public opinion which To become a useful instrument, however humble, to assist needed than reference to the following among the many who testify reacts upon Congress and controls its decisions.

the working of the admirable machinery of our popular institutions, is the ambition of the conductor of the Globe. Extraordinary preparations have therefore been made to meet the increasing demands of our rapidly-improving and growing country for Congressional intelligence.
